PROCEDURE FOLLOWED IN THE APPEALS AND COMPLAINTS UNDER RTI ACT, 2005

The Meghalaya State Information Commission receives complaints under the provision of Section 18 of the RTI Act, 2005. On receipt of the complaints from the citizens, complaints petitions are placed before the State Chief Information Commissioner who, on scrutiny of the case may order an enquiry or may dismiss the complaint as deemed fit. The State Chief Information Commissioner generally require the attendance of the Public Information Officer/Public Authority against whom a complaint has been received and after hearing the PIOs/Public Authorities, arrived at a decision as per the provisions of the Act. The Complainant/Appellant may choose to appear or not on the date of hearing as provided under Rule 7(2) of the Meghalaya Right to Information (Appeals & Procedure) Rules, 2007, or may attend the hearing online.

The State Information Commission also receives appeals against Orders of the First Appellate Authority under Section 19 of the RTI Act, 2005. On receipt of the appeals from the concerned citizens; the matter is placed before the State Chief Information Commissioner who disposes the appeals as per the Meghalaya Right to Information (Appeals & Procedure) Rules, 2007. The Appellant may or may not appear on the date of hearing in terms of Rules 7(2) of the Appeals Procedure Rules or may exercise the option of attending the hearing online. The Appellant is however, informed of each and every date fixed for hearing the case. If, however, the Commission finds merit in the arguments put forth by the PIO/Designated Appellate Authority in denying the information, the Appellant is generally given the opportunity to present his case in person or through an agent duly authorized by him/her and after completion of such hearing, the Commission gives its final decision.
